Note:

This work is thought to have originated in the collection of Dr. Fritz Salo Glaser (1876 Zittau–1956 Dresden). Glaser was an attorney who in the 1920s served as legal counsel for the Rote Hilfe, the German affiliate of the International Red Aid (a Communist organisation); he also descended from a Jewish family. He was thus expelled from the bar association immediately after the Nazis' rise to power in 1933.

Glaser sold works from his art collection during the Nazi era as a means of providing for the livelihood of his family. It is also known that many Glaser works were sold after the war.

Further research is required to establish the date and circumstances of the acquisition of this work by Hildebrand Gurlitt.
